MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

FROM: J. Kenneth McDonald
                    Chief, History Staff

SUBJECT: Curriculum vitae for   STAT

    I've just received the attached curriculum vitae from   STAT whom I suggested in yesterday's memo as a possible candidate to work on your book on the origins of American intelligence.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

FROM: J. Kenneth McDonald
                  Chief, History Staff

SUBJECT: Research Assistants

1.   I've found a good candidate for the job of checking your OSS book manuscript against the documents released to the National Archives.   STAT I'll enclose his resume.

2.   I should note, however, that the OSS records that CIA has already transferred to the National Archives are only the first half of our holdings; it may take another year or so to transfer the other half. (The rate of transfer is governed mainly by the National Archives' capacity to accession the records.) This means that a researcher could not check your manuscript against all the declassified OSS records for some time yet.

3.   For work on the material you've gathered for a book on the origins of American intelligence I can offer two suggestions.   STAT

5.   I'll be glad to help arrange interviews for any or all of these candidates. If none fills the bill, I can turn up some more possibilities.
